

Please do your job: Foster the climate for diverse programming and points of view, and protect the public airwaves from potential domination/monopoly by any single individual/company/corporation/interest group, etc.

Our American way of life and democracy depend on hearing/seeing a representation of all points of view, whether news reporting or other programming such as entertainment.

Thank you.

Mary Anne Seibert, Seattle